It is our privilege to pray for you

AN UPDATE FROM FAITHPRAYERS

Over 7,000 people called the FaithPrayers phone line last year, most from the United States and Canada. In addition, thousands more sent email prayer requests from around the world. We have had such positive feedback from so many who called. Towards the end of last year, a lady from New York contacted us and said "I just keep hearing people talk about this prayer line and decided to call!" Other callers tell us they appreciate the fact that all of our volunteer prayer line staff are "real" and not tied to a script or particular set scriptures. Instead, they listen and they pray from their hearts. Our prayer line volunteers never try to collect addresses for our mailing lists or ask for donations to FaithPrayers when on the prayer line.

We have had numerous people report turnarounds in their lives, physical healings, and strength to persevere. In December, we were elated when a man who had contacted us when his marriage was near disintegration, phoned back to let us know how much the prayer had meant and that amazingly, his marriage was now recovering. Just this week, a woman told one of our volunteers what a relief it was to call a prayer line where every single thing was not chalked up to evil spirits. Instead, she felt that we had a highly-balanced approach to prayer, and that those who had prayed for her had done so in a holistic way: body, mind, and spirit. All of this feedback has been so helpful to us.

We see roads opening up ahead of us and need your financial help as well if you can offer it. Among the number of avenues just opening up to us, one is especially important to me: we are exploring the very initial stages of creating a Spanish-language branch of the FaithPrayers prayer line.

Please help us make these things a reality. Your financial help right now would be most helpful as we plan for the year.

We send our love and blessings to you in a month that's known for love...

"We love, because He first loved us!" 1 John 4:19

THANK YOU TO OUR VOLUNTEERS

It's clear that what matters to each of our prayer volunteers is that God is honored. Every volunteer on this prayer line has indicated the strong belief that it is God alone who works and answers. We just pray. From its inception, FaithPrayers used the slogan "it is our privilege to pray for you", and we have kept that slogan to this day. At FaithPrayers, we believe it is our privilege to pray to the God who can so powerfully answer prayer.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank our prayer volunteers and to ask you, our friends and supporters, to keep them in your prayers. We would ask that God would empower our volunteers' prayers on behalf of others, that they would be filled with the Holy Spirit as they pray for those who call, and that their lives would be blessed for what they are doing. They are quite an outstanding group of people!
